

Overview & Mission

The mission of the Center for Disability Resources (CDR) at Illinois Institute of Technology is to ensure that qualified individuals with disabilities are provided an equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from the academic and vocational opportunities available at IIT. The CDR provides reasonable accommodations and support services to qualified students, faculty, staff, and guests with disabilities on an individualized case-by-case basis and in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Persons with disabilities are recognized for their abilities, rather than their disabilities, or stereotypical attributes ascribed to their respective impairments regardless of what they may be. The CDR strives to foster equal access, self-determination, and cultural inclusion. This is sought through coordinating the provision of academic modifications and accommodations, auxiliary aids and services and environmental adaptations for qualified individuals with disabilities while providing advocacy support, technical assistance, and outreach on disability-related issues to the IIT community.

The CDR is the designated office of Illinois Institute of Technology that obtains and files disability-related documents, certifies eligibility for disability services, determines reasonable accommodations, and develops and coordinates plans for the provision of such accommodations for students, faculty, staff, and guests with disabilities. The Center is housed within and affiliated with Illinois Institute of Technology's College of Psychology.
