

LEARNING MODERN

Opening Friday September 25, 4:30 to 7:00 p.m.

With the world on the brink of economic and political disaster, László Moholy-Nagy and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe carried Bauhaus principles from Germany to Chicago in the late 1930s, furthering the role of experiential education. This exhibition features projects by artists and architects today who continue their legacy and a modern vision.

Sullivan Galleries
School of the Art
Institute of Chicago
33 South State
7th floor

SEPT. 25, 2009

School of the Art Institute of Chicago

Sullivan Galleries
33 South State Street, 7th Floor
Chicago, IL 60603

Presorted
First Class Mail
U.S. Postage
PAID
Chicago, IL
Permit #2930

This exhibition runs from September 26, 2009 to January 9, 2010.

It is a program of Living Modern Chicago, a collaboration of the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and the Mies van der Rohe Society/ Illinois Institute of Technology. It is also made possible in part by the William and Anne Hokin Exhibition Research Fund, Alicia Rosauer and Robert Segal, Emily Hall Tremain Foundation, Getty Images, Tracy Dillard/Koenig & Strey GMAC Real Estate, illy caffè North America, Inc., Association for Computer Aided Design in Architecture, and the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency. For more information and details on related programming, please visit www.livingmodernchicago.org

School of the Art Institute of Chicago

the Mies van der Rohe society
ILLINOIS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY