Discover the value of living on campus.

Diverse community of students creates a unique living atmosphere. No need for monthly rent payments—room and board is billed once a semester! All utilities are included, even wireless internet and cable TV! Don't love moving furniture? No problem. MSV, SSV and Gunsaulus Hall come fully furnished! Student and professional hall staff members are available 24 hours a day. Commons dining hall and Keating sports center are right outside your door. Campus housing is close to academic classrooms and the library. Clean and convenient laundry rooms are available throughout MSV, SSV and Gunsaulus! Easy access to the CTA Green and Red lines. You'll always know about new and fun activities posted throughout the halls. Living on campus is the best way to make the most of your IIT experience.

2010–2011 room and board rates are published online at housing.iit.edu after March 1, 2010.

NEW FOR 2010-2011!

Theme communities will allow residents to develop relationships with other students who share similar interests. Students will have opportunities to develop leadership skills as they explore and develop programs related to the theme. Students will be expected to remain in good academic and judicial standing, attend community meetings, and fulfill community requirements.

Service Learning – Partnering with the Office of Student Life, residents in the service learning community will participate in activities in and around the campus community that enrich the lives of others. Volunteer events and opportunities for reflection will be offered on a regular basis. Hosted in McCormick Student Village.

Recreation and Wellness – Looking to maintain an active lifestyle once you arrive on campus? Residents in the Recreation and Wellness community will be regular participants in campus recreation and intramural events. Tips for staying healthy and support for staying active will be incorporated into community programming. Hosted in McCormick Student Village.

Global Village – It is one thing to live in a diverse community. It is another thing to learn and grow in a diverse community. Global Village residents will regularly engage in activities to share, explore, and learn about the similarities and uniqueness of a variety of different cultures. Hosted in Gunsaulus Hall.

MCCORMICK STUDENT VILLAGE

McCormick Student Village (MSV) encompasses the traditional values of a college residence hall.

Built as the first residence hall on Main Campus, MSV provides large lounges, multiple study areas, and many opportunities for student interaction. MSV has a comfortable and friendly atmosphere. In addition, all residence halls are connected by a central common area and one main entrance/exit, which foster a safe community.

Room options

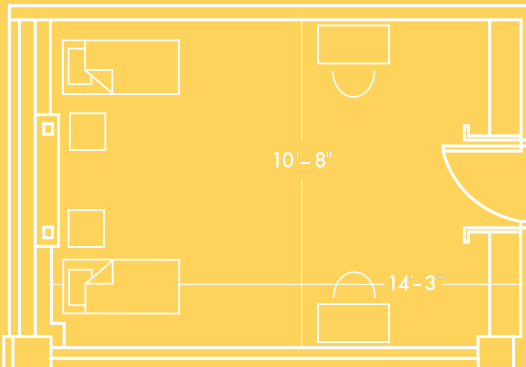

- 176 square foot room shared with one other student, with shared bathrooms on each floor. This is the only room option available to first-year students at MSV.
- Small single rooms and double deluxes (suites with kitchens). Available to upper classmen.
- Available to IIT and Vandercook College of Music students.
- August to May contract; winter break available for additional fee.

STATE STREET VILLAGE

State Street Village (SSV) offers students one of the finest college residence options in the country.

Designed by Helmut Jahn and completed in 2003, SSV is a collection of three residence halls. SSV North and Middle contain double suites, which are one of two housing options available to first-year students. SSV South contains apartments available to upper classmen.

Room options

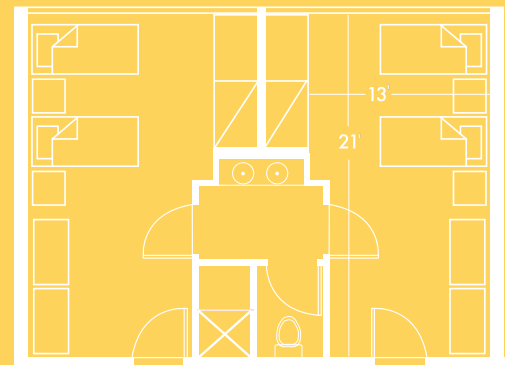

- 460 square foot "quad suites," which are two separate suites with a shared bathroom, housing four students. This is the only room option available to first-year students in SSV.
- One-, two-, three-, and six-bedroom apartments with private kitchens and baths. This option is available to students after their first-year.
- Available to IIT and Vandercook College of Music students.
- August to May contract; winter break included.

Approximately 70% of IIT students live on campus in one of the two residence halls complexes, or in one of the two sorority or six fraternity houses.
