

2008 Summer Program in Paris, France

Is Paris the most wonderful city in the world? You decide. Explore the City of Lights.

Information Session

Hosted by the International Center and Professors Grimshaw and Dabbert. Meet the faculty, learn more about the classes offered, learn about housing and application details, and meet past program participants!

October 25, 2007 @ 12:50pm-1:50pm, HUB, Crown room

November 13, 2007 @ 12:50pm-1:50pm, HUB, Crown room

Application

Deadline: December 14, 2007

Click here to download application

Courses

PS/SOC 385 Modern French Politics, Prof. Bill Grimshaw

AAH 3800 Humanities: American Artists and Their French Teachers, Prof. Jim Dabbert

Facilities

IIT's Paris Center includes a classroom equipped with computers, printers, internet access and other classroom supplies.

Dates of Program

Courses scheduled for June 2-27, 2008.

Students can arrive in Paris early for extra travel time and/or stay longer after the program completion. Access to classroom facilities will be limited to official program dates.

Fees

Tuition: IIT summer tuition for courses

Text books: Approx $50

Airfare: Approx $1200 roundtrip (peak tourist season)

Food: Approx 20-30 Euros/day

Passport: $85, Apply Now: <http://travel.state.gov/passport>

Housing

Approximate costs: 800-1500 Euros/month, excluding security deposit

More details will be provided at the Information Session

Information on France

<http://www.campusfrance.org/en/>

<http://us.franceguide.com/>

For further information on this program, please contact Lou Rizzo (rizzo@iit.edu).