

---

---

Khairy Tourk

Stuart School of Business
Professor - International Business
Date of Hire: 1972
2346 Ashland , Evanston, IL 60201
tourk@stuart.iit.edu

---

---

Academic Background

Ph.D. University of California, Berkeley, California, Economics, 1971
B.S. Alexandria University, Egypt, Economics, 1959

Work Experience

Academic Experience

Professor, Stuart Graduate School of Business, Illinois Institute of Technology (2007 - Present).
Visiting Fellow, Institute of Economic Research (2004 - 2005).

International

Visiting Scholar, Department of Economics, Hitotsubashi University (November, 2007 - Present).
Visiting Professor, Economic Research Institute, Nagoya University (2004 - 2005).
Visiting Professor, Institute of Social Science, University of Tokyo (2004 - 2005).

Courses Taught

Contemp Issues in IB (MBA)
IN Strategoc Competit-Next Economy (MBA)
International Trade (MBA)
International Trade (specialized masters)
Macroeconomics in the Global Economy (specialized masters)
Management Science (MBA)
Managerial Economics (MBA)
The Global Enterprise in the Competitive Environment (specialized masters)
Theory of the Firm (specialized masters)

Intellectual Contributions:

Service:

Service to the University

College assignments:

Member:

2008-2009: AUCOPT

2008-2009: Graduate Program and Development Committee

2007-2008 through 2008-2009: Instructional Resources Committee

2006-2007: AUCOPT

2006-2007: Strategic Planning/Business Plan Development and Update Committee

2006-2007 through 2007-2008: Research and Faculty Development Committee

Honors & Awards

Awards:

2007: Award for Distinguished Scholarship and Illustrious Service, Faculty of Commerce, Alexandria University, Egypt.

---